

Hold the line for Conference Call

Your conference and event specialists

Conference Call is a boutique independent agency that specialises in conference and event management. We've been making life easier for companies across Australia for more than 13 years, offering complete and personalised conference and event solutions, as well as free venue finding services.

We are passionate about providing a flexible service to suit your needs and requirements. Rather than offering our clients 'all or nothing', Conference Call is committed to providing a tailored level of assistance, whether it be full end-to-end event management or everything in between.

Most importantly, we pride ourselves on understanding our clients, acting as an extension of their business and working as part of their team in order to provide them with seamless support to ensure the event meets their objectives and is enjoyed by all. We run events as if they were our own and do our utmost to make each one the very best ever.

Conference Call is an independent company offering completely transparent services and advice when it comes to venue and supplier recommendations and quotes. We have a superior database of venues and suppliers and can organise some of the best possible rates in the business.

We have experience across all areas of conference and event management including corporate conferences, sales conferences, training courses, leadership retreats, workplace incentives and special events.

We understand how challenging it is to find the perfect venue but our extensive knowledge in this area enables us to offer specialist advice. Whether it's an event for 10 people or 600, we've done it all! As a fully licensed IATA travel agency, we're experienced in both international and domestic conferences and trip incentives.

Testimonials from some of our clients speak for themselves:

"The success of the conference was in large part due to the involvement of Conference Call from the earliest phases of planning. Their organisation of every aspect of the event was highly professional and meticulous. We were impressed with how quickly they picked up on the culture of the organisation and worked within that framework - we felt they were part of the team rather than a consultant"

- St George Bank

"I found their level of expertise to be very professional and personalised. There is nothing that is too difficult for them to accomplish and they were very accommodating with any requests given to them. Our event was very successful"

- Optus

"The team at Conference Call have an excellent understanding of Pirtek's needs and expectations and they have never pointed us in the wrong direction! That is why Pirtek keep going back to Conference Call year after year. Pirtek highly recommends, without hesitation, the services of Conference Call".
